Objections To Claims

Claims 17 and 18 along with dependent claims 19-32, and claim 61 along with dependent claims 62-64 are objected to as including possible dependency errors. Claims 17 and 18 currently depend from claim 11, but it appears that applicant may have actually intended claims 17 and 18 to depend from claim 16. Claim 61 may have a similar error in that it currently depends from claim 22 but may have actually been intended to depend from 60. Applicant is consequently advised to review the dependency of the above mentioned claims and to make any necessary corrections. (The listing of claims 17, 18, 61 and related dependent claims in the restriction groups below is based on what is believed to be the chain of dependency actually intended by applicant.)

Restriction Requirement

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 USC 121:

- I. Claims 1-14, 33-46 and 65 drawn to a gas turbine stall detection and recovery apparatus and/or method (combination) classified in Class 60, subclass 779, and
- II. Claims 15-32 and 47-64 drawn to a gas turbine stall detection apparatus and/or method (subcombination) classified in Class 60, subclass 772.

The inventions of Groups I and II above are distinct because the stall detection and recovery apparatus/method combination of Group 1 does not require all pertinent details of the stall detection apparatus/method subcombination of Group II – this is made readily apparent by a comparison between claims 1 and 15 or claims 33 and 47. It is additionally pointed out that the Group II subcombination has separate utility and need not be used exclusively with the specific type of stall recovery system required by the Group I combination.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and require separate classification and/or divergent fields of search, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that even in the event that the restriction requirement is traversed, the response to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined. (Because the objection set forth above will most likely require a preexamination amendment, the present restriction requirement is not suitable for election by telephone, and applicant has consequently not been offered the option of a telephone election in this instance.)
